Overview

Indian Gen Z consumers are motivated to attain their dreams of owning a home, driving a car and travelling abroad at a young age. Given the current global economic uncertainties, they have realised that financial prudence is the only way to achieve their goals. This is reflected in their purchasing habits, with 91% of Gen Z consumers prioritising savings for future goals.

They are on the lookout for affordable products and are avid deal hunters in their everyday purchases. As a result, brands' top priority should be to provide affordable, long-lasting, value-for-money products to these cash-strapped young consumers.

Furthermore, the younger generation is witnessing first-hand evidence of inequality issues and climate change-related mishaps all around them, contributing to their eco anxiety. Despite
